Dear Dr. Lederberg,

On my return to Washington I have found your letter of August 10th. I am so looking forward to meeting you on October 16th and very much excited that you have taken over the presidency of The Rockefeller University.

I find being on the University Council very stimulating and know that you will have some great new plans in store for us. I was lunching across the street last week with Hibbard Williams who talked warmly of you. I feel that he is going to do great things for New York Hospital, and any association I have with your University and New York and Cornell is, I find, a most rewarding experience. Unfortunately, living in Washington, I do not spend as much time in New York as I would like.

Looking forward to meeting you on October 16th,

Yours sincerely,
